Hotel with a History

Never before has a hotel had a magnitude of history like the Shepheard, which was founded in 1841 by the British Mr. Samuel Shepheard in Ezbekia area that was once the Headquarters of Napoleon forces during the invasion to Egypt, witnessing major historical events since that time.

Now, the Shepheard is one of Cairo's classical hotels located in the prestigious district Garden City with a breathtaking view of the majestic River Nile, among Cairo's deluxe hotels. It is located at a walking distance from the Egyptian Museum, Opera House, business districts and shopping areas.

The hotel features 300 spacious elegant rooms and suites, most overlooking the River Nile, furnished with list of amenities that guests need to feel comfortable during their stay.
